RELEVANCE OF EACH DOCUMENT

In a counterpart Chinese application, a Chinese Office Action issued on January 20, 2005. According to an English translation of the Chinese Office Action obtained by Applicants' representative, the Republic of China Patent Office made certain characterizations of the references.

According to an English translation of the Chinese Office Action, document C1 discloses that "a changeover switch is used to control the connection between lighting circuit and power supply, achieving the purpose of providing the function of illuminators by means of the changeover switch turn on and off." Document C1 further discloses that "a changeover switch is used to connect its second terminal and third terminal to a direction indicator and an alarm indicator, respectively, achieving the purpose of providing the function of illuminators by means of switching the connection among the direction indicator, the alarm indicator and the power supply."

As noted, the characterizations of the Republic of China Patent Office set forth above are based on an English translation obtained by Applicant's representative. The disclosure of these characterizations should not be construed as an admission of or agreement with the opinions expressed in Chinese Office Action.

Applicants respectfully request that each listed document be considered by the Examiner and be made of record in the present application and that an initialed copy of Form PTO/SB/08 be returned in accordance with MPEP §609.
